The 1982 "Polaris" is dedicated to Mr. Redford, without whose hardwork and dedication "Polaris" could not be a reality.

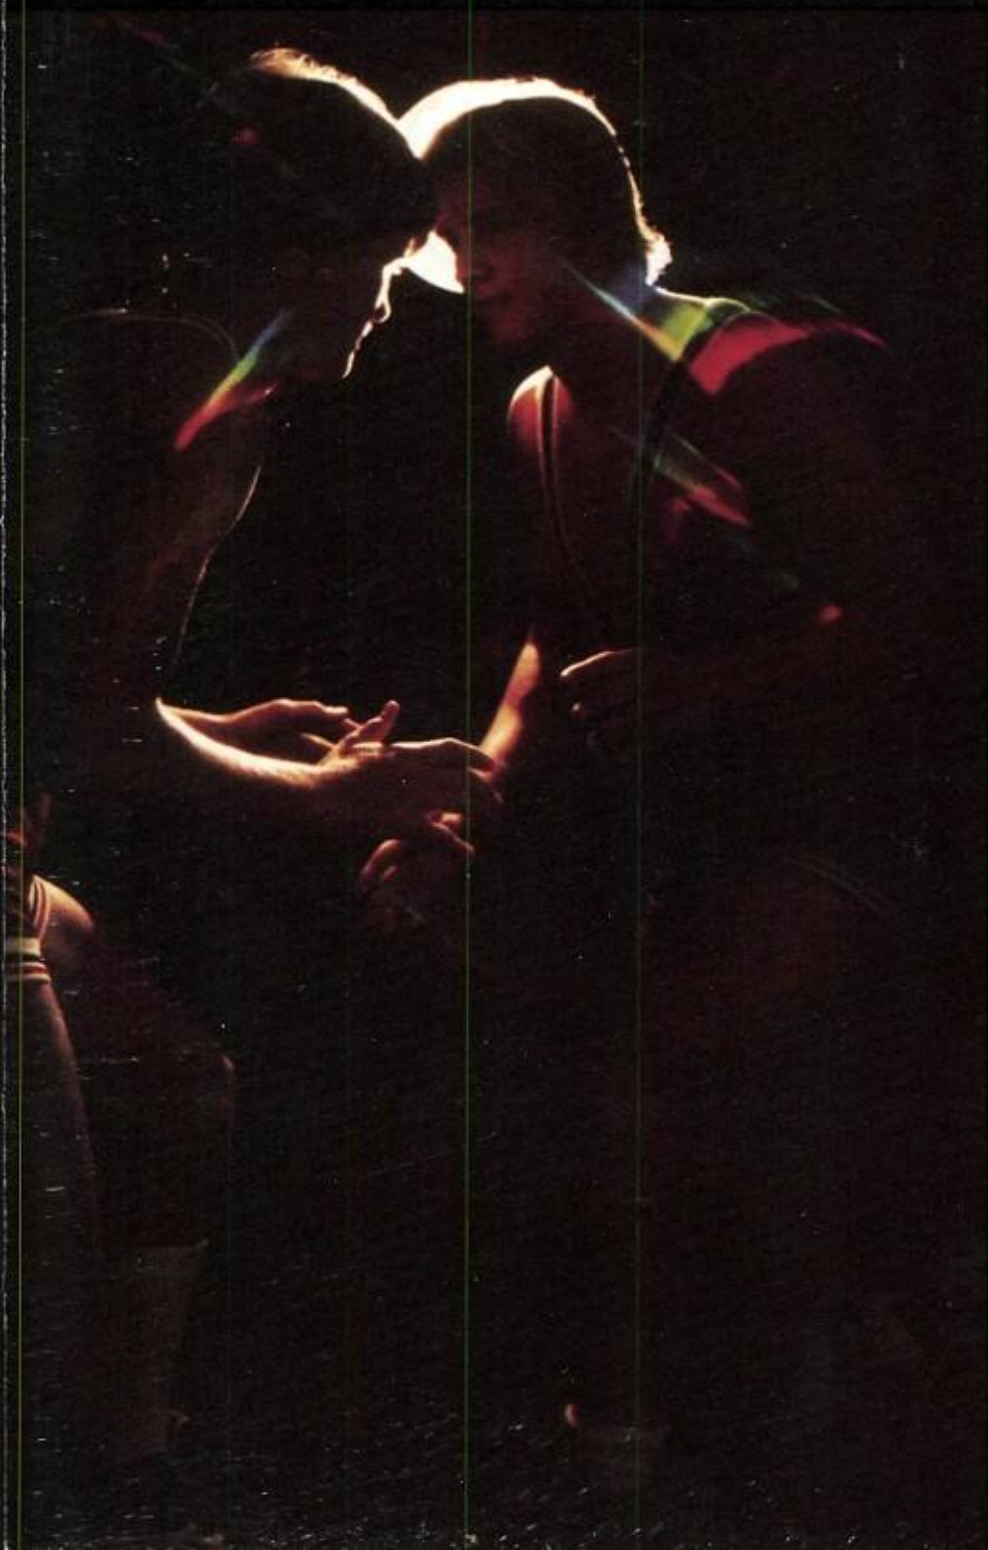

JoAnne,
your seal
sweet.
stay sweet.
Glad you were in my town.

The last confetti descends,
the stadium is peaceful,
years drift by . . .

We slip into our yearbooks pausing
at the memories,
The victories still live on.

Kim Brooks

Please let me be loose,
I need to be free.
I've got wings to fly
through time,
legs to run with the speed of sound.
And I want to live
my way!
Destroy this fence;
sever my chains;
teach me,
the ways of the world.

Sherrie Fitzwater

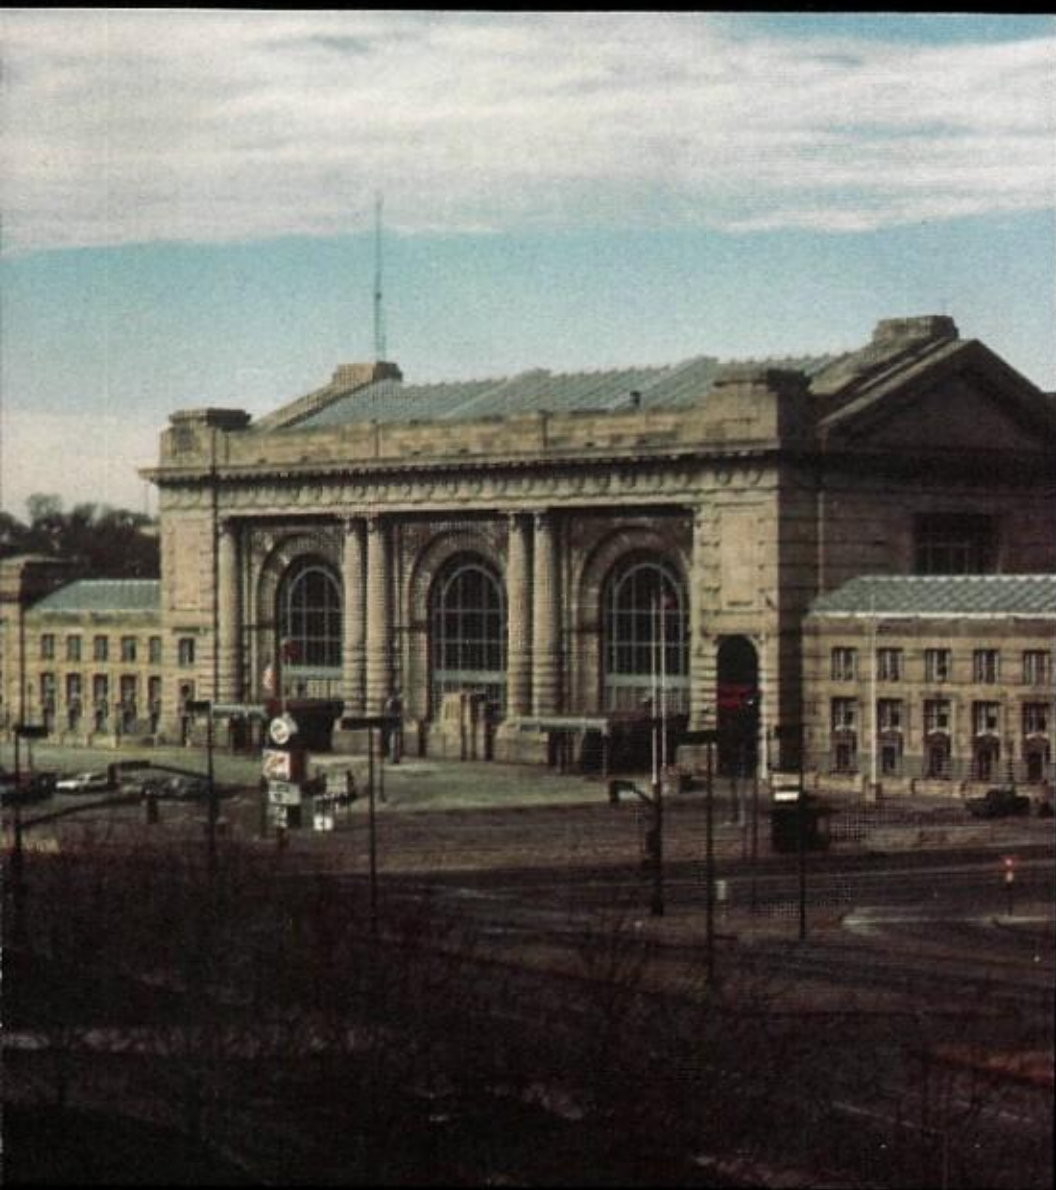

People
Can change their lives
As a flower changes
From dusk to dawn
From closed to open.

Changing
As a boat drifts
Across the lake; slowly
Keeping pace with the current
For us.

Allison DeAtley

Wake upon a city dreams
A city where your imagination
Can fly you anywhere.

Allison DeAtly

A hot air balloon sailing into the horizon . . .
Our ascending expectations . . .
Like a roller coaster,
We change in motion
so lost in our todays
that we cannot discover our tomorrows.

Sandy Ford

A brief glimpse of movement, a dash of color in the Theatre of the Seasons.

A glowing vision racing by;
like our lifetime, it Floats away.

To all of you at Ray-South,

We want to thank each of you who made our stay here as exchange students so happy and interesting. Maybe we weren't all the time as appreciative as we should have been but want you to know that we are very grateful for everything.

Although it sometimes was hard, this year has been very enjoyable and meaningful to us.

We were very glad to get to know so many good friends. You helped us with our difficulties and shared our happy moments.

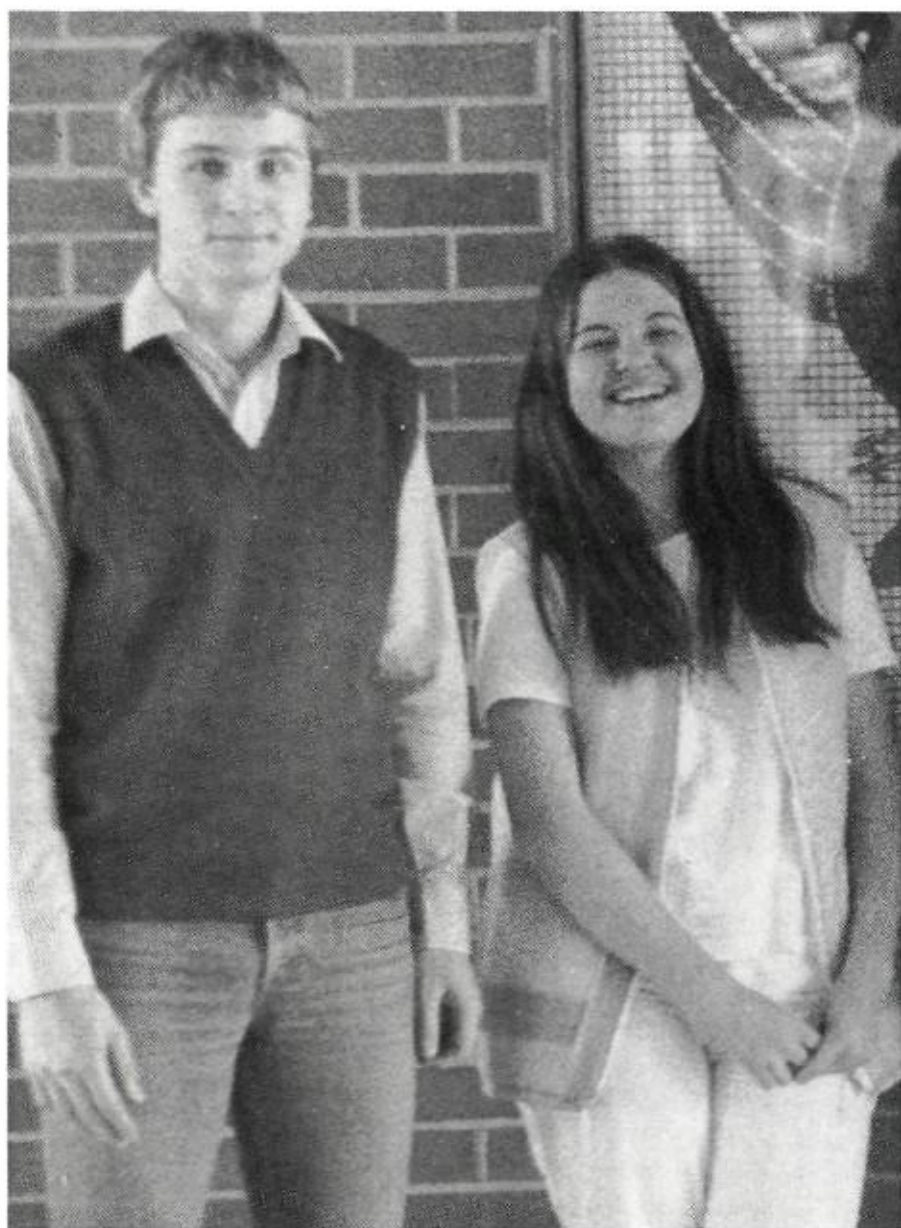

We hope that our stay meant something to you too. For us it will be unforgettable.

The 1981 Varsity Boys Cross Country Team was full of talent this year. In the three years Coach Richardson has coached the team, he has produced a team that has taken 1st in Conference, and has gone to the state meet all three years. The tri-captains were Jay S., Blair B. and Doug C. The boys brought home 2nd place trophies from the Sedalia Invit. and the Ray-South Invit. They had a third place finish in the Shawnee Mission NW Invit. and the District meet. At the Park Hill Invit. South came in 4th. Layout and copy by Joye Ham. Photography by David Reed. The 1981-82 Varsity Cheerleaders under their new sponsor Mr. William Austin, supported the Varsity football and basketball boys during their seasons. During the summer, they attended the N.C.A. Cheerleading camp where they received an award of excellence, they also raised money by working at Kenegy Park and Blue Trace. This year's squad consist of: Lisa Baker, Sandy Ford, Lisa Hottle, Lisa Lindsey, Kim Ross, Jana Stinzi and Shawna Teasley. Photos by Glenn Powell and John Hooper. Copy and layout by Sheri Smith.

Cheerleaders, Yell-Leaders Pour on Spirit

The 1981-82 Cheerleaders and Yell-Leaders worked hard to promote spirit at all games and for all crowds. They practiced all summer long and through the school year to form a successful squad. They dedicated themselves to inspiring enthusiasm and pep. They thought up and performed skits in numerous pep rallies during the year. They, the pep rallies, were aimed for generating spirit among the varsity football and basketball teams. Their sponsors this year were Mr. Bill Austin and Mr. Bob Davis. The 1981-82 Varsity Boys basketball team had a good season. Under the coaching of Bud Lathrop, and his assistant Coach Bailey the Cardinals season ended with a record of 17 wins and 8 losses. The record is misleading, for the cardinals played close and exciting games. David Fennelly and David Mosier were selected to the First Team All-Conference basketball team. The junior varsity basketball team at Raytown South was inexperienced and young, but still managed to complete a great year. Although the season started on a down note when they lost to Kansas City Central in five overtimes, the J.V. players fought hard throughout the season. Another tough loss was dealt by Rockhurst when a shot was hit at the buzzer. With the exception of these two losses, the junior varsity team blew out every other opponent under veteran coach John Bailey. Layout and copy by Keith Breda. Underclassmen Keep Winning Tradition at South

The sophomore basketball team turned in another fantastic season under Coach Reed. This team projects a positive outlook for the basketball program in the future.

The freshmen basketball team had an outstanding year in their first year at South. Under first year freshmen coach J.R. Hursman they also provide a bright outlook for basketball at Raytown South.

Wrestlers Aim for Success

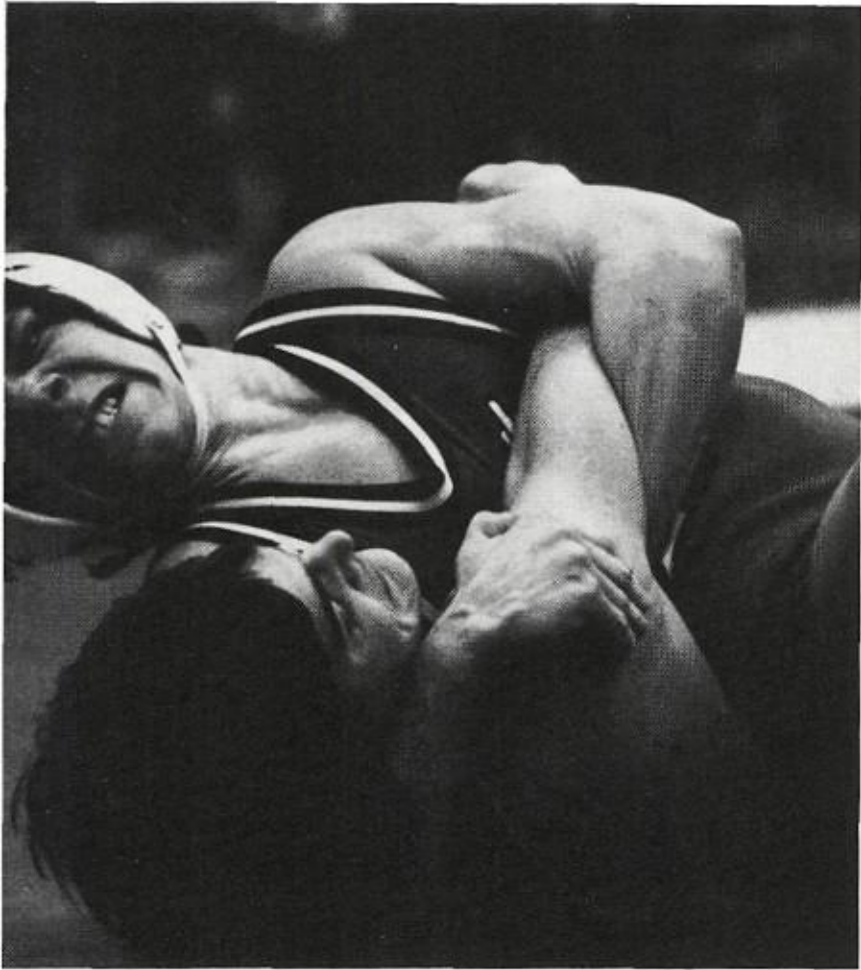

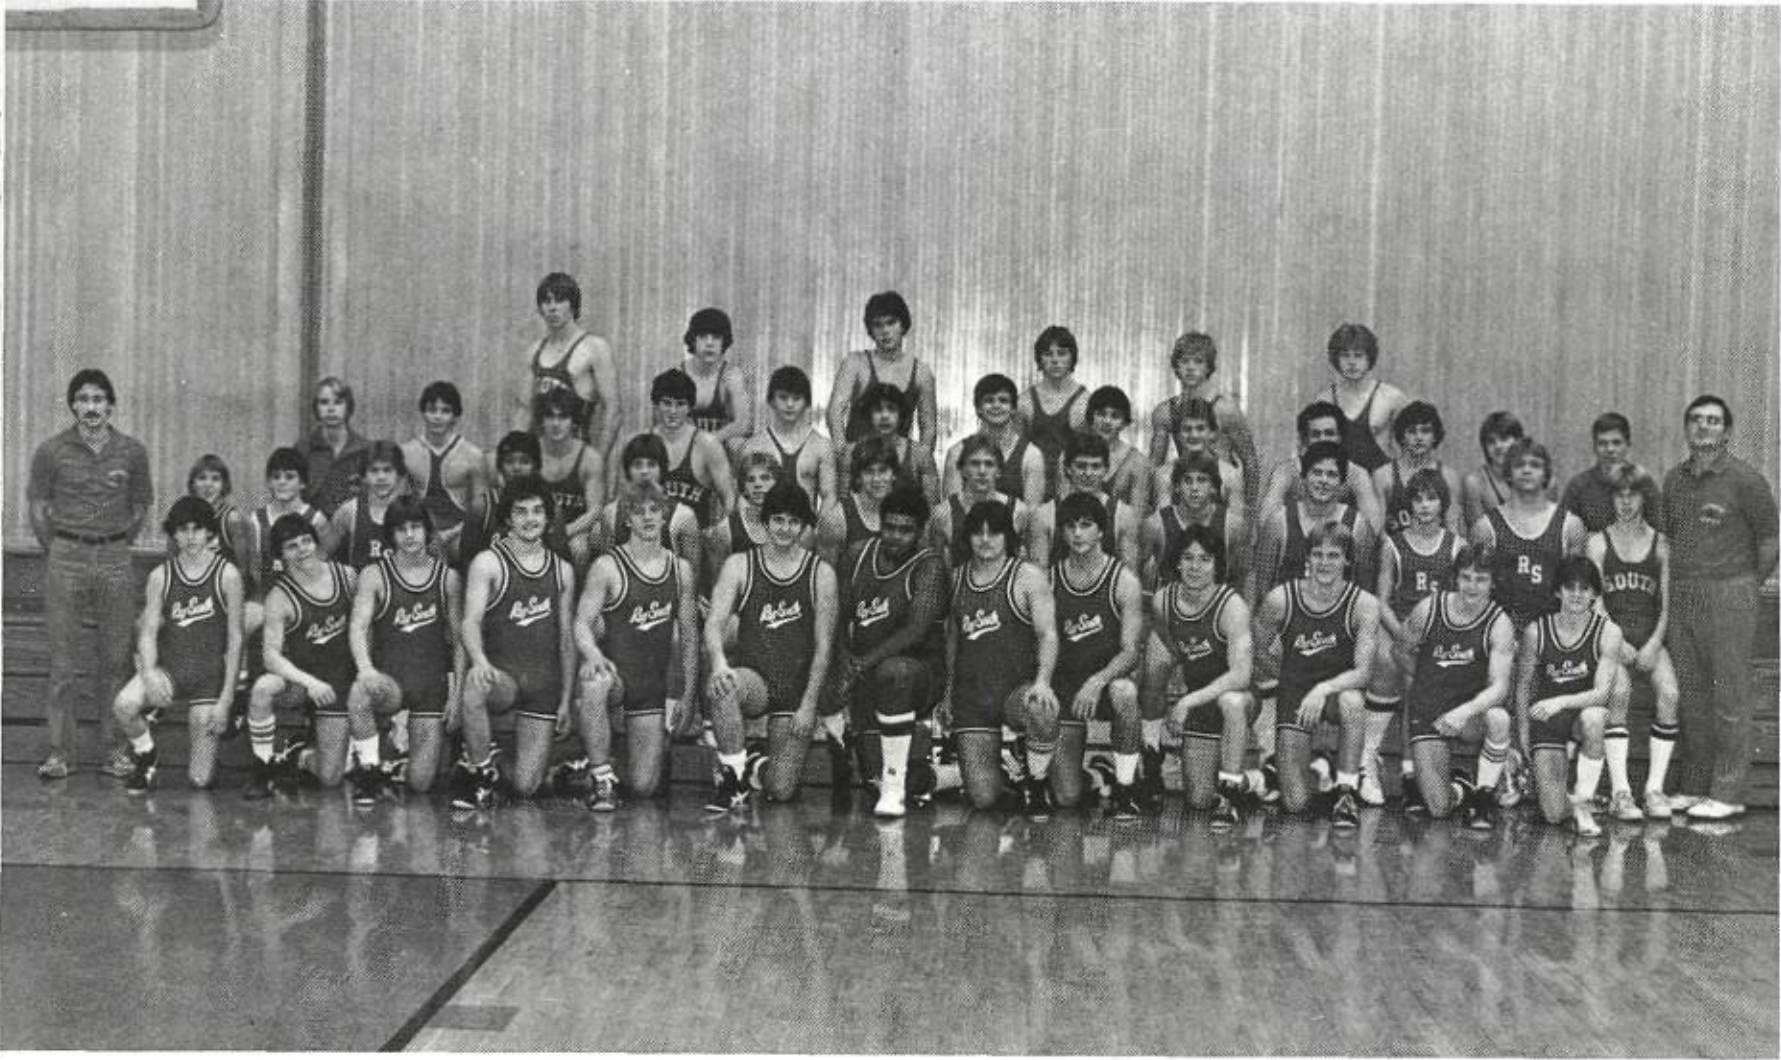

The 1981-82 Raytown South Varsity Wrestling team had a fine nucleus to build on as they returned six lettermen from last year's team. They are seniors Jim Ratchford, Scott Brown, Brad Woodworth, Rob Phillips and juniors Jerry Staggs and Dennis Bird. These six returning lettermen compiled an impressive individual record of 87 wins and 21 losses last year. Under second coach Randy Steen the wrestlers should look forward to an exciting year. In 81-82

The Pep Band was organized in order to entertain and to bring the spirit of South High into the lives of the students. They perform at all basketball games, pep rallies, and this year at the Fun Run. The band showed their thanks this year to the cheerleaders for good publicity by giving each one a carnation. This year's band was led by Larry Crites and Doctor Lewis. Layout and copy by Paula Fanning. Photography by John Hooper and Glenn Powell.

JAZZ BAND ENLIVENS 1981-82

Left: Part of the Band; gettin' with the rhythm. Below: The perfect picture of a serious musician. Below right: Practicing for Bartle Hall performance.

The Raytown South Jazz Band is a musical organization led by Doctor Lewis. The Jazz Band performs in different parts of the city for various functions. Bartle Hall and Radisson Muehlebach are just a few examples. This year they sponsored the Jazz Band Variety Show held on October 27th for a money making project. They have also participated in many contests. Layout and copy by Paula Fanning. Photography by Diana Cox.

Left: Good show, Kari.

The Cardinal Chorale is a choir led by Mr. Walker, consisting of about twenty-six people. The choir does not have a scheduled class and therefore practices before and after school. The Cardinal Chorale performs in all areas of the city. Some of the places they sang were at other schools, at the Midland Theatre for the opening and closing of Sugar Babies, and they performed for some retired teachers. The chorale sold mugs this year for a fund raising event. Layout and copy by Paula Fanning. Photography by Glenn Powell.

Girls Glee

Boys Glee

Boys Glee and Girls Glee are choirs led by Mr. Walker. They consist of Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors. The Boys Glee and Girls Glee sing mainly in concerts at South High, and Girls Glee sang at Blue Ridge Mall this year. They have, for the past five years, won awards. The Girls Glee practiced Mondays after school, and Boys Glee practiced on Fridays. Layout and copy on these two pages by Paula Fanning. Photography by Glenn Powell.
